

It was the Sunday after the crucifixion. The disciples were huddled in the upper room. Mary Magdalene came running in and said, "I've just been to the tomb, and I've got some good news and some bad news."

"Tell us the good news," they said.

"When I got there, the tomb was empty, and there was an angel there who said that Jesus is truly the son of God and has risen from the grave to sit at the right hand of God and be the judge of the living and the dead."

"That's wonderful news. What could possibly be the bad news?"

"He's real pissed about Friday."
